BOOK SYNOPSIS

But the mystery of her origins only deepens . . . Decades later, in 1940s Germany, we meet Krysta. Her Papa is busy working in the infirmary with the animal people. Left alone, she loses herself in the stories of Hansel and Gretel, the Pied Piper and others. But when she is forced to understand the truth about her surroundings, she discovers reality can be as terrifying as any fairy tale. Exploring unspeakable darkness, the horrors of the holocaust and the power of the imagination, the strands of these two mysteriously connected stories are drawn ever closer together until the breathtaking final revelation.
